Hi Ernie:

We've haven't connected in awhile -- hope all is well and that you and Susan have had a productive Summer.

I give up on the license challenge. If I don't bellyache about it, then it seems there is no movement or pressure for resolution. I inherited it, so be it. The station remains at risk, I can only report that there has been zero progress. I find it odd to say the least.

I regret to inform you that Jackie Wright's position was eliminated due to budget cuts. I now report to a Special Assistant to the Superintendent and she will soon be putting me under an underling with the title of PR Associate. So be it. They are -- so far -- extremely hands off.

I have good relations with many of the School Board Members. However, the political winds of the District blow in many directions, so you never know. That said: please give me a real timeline for resolution. Have you worked with Adelstein? Are we on your agenda?

Thanks,
Nicole
