Dear Ms. Dortch:

On July 3, 2006, Jim Coltharp of Comcast Corporation and Helgi Walker of Wiley Rein & Fielding LLP, representing Comcast Corporation (“Comcast”), Steven Teplitz of Time Warner Inc. and Arthur Harding of Fleischman and Walsh, L.L.P., representing Time Warner Inc. (“Time Warner”), and the undersigned, representing Adelphia Communications Corp. (“Adelphia”), (collectively, the “Applicants”) met with Heather Dixon, Legal Advisor for Media Issues to Chairman Kevin Martin, regarding the above-captioned proceeding.

Applicants addressed the availability of regional sports networks (“RSNs”) with which they are affiliated. The discussion focused on Applicants’ positions on regional sports programming that were previously raised in their filings in this proceeding, as well as details related to any possible conditions regarding such programming, such as the definition of a “regional sports network” and the duration of any such conditions.

In addition, Helgi Walker participated in a subsequent telephone conversation with Catherine Bohigian, Chief of the FCC’s Office of Strategic Planning and Policy Analysis, regarding the same issues described above.
