

The FCC should consider the interests of MILLIONS of people like me who pay the bills and rely on cable television for programming and news. We need a world where cable companies air programming that serves local communities and where COMPETITION gives us lower prices and more choices. Many of us already have enough trouble trying to afford cable TV. Please SONT make it easier for Comcast and Time Warner to block free speech, raise prices, and keep out competitors.