

I believe that emergency authorization of the Amateur Radio Service is what is needed to save life and property. However, I maintain such use should comply with the ARRL petition to restrict emissions to occupied bandwidth in data or voice designations.