

I very much hope for the day local council, local church, local ball games are transmitted on low power FM transmitters narrowcasted by broadcasters. I think there needs to be diversity of programming. Professional broadcasters know the ins and outs in broadcasting the unlearned are unaware of. It is normally not economically viable for public service to only have one use of the service licensed to-wit. A blend of offerings at different times is the way to go, in my opinion.