

I support the National Association of the Deaf and other consumer organization's proposal to require that all relay service providers provide 10 digit geographic telephone numbers to videophone users that can be reached from the public switched telephone network.

(PSTN)