

When the Internet was first proposed the Government promised it would be hands off to Government and Big Business. I don't want Big Business or Government to have any control over the internet at all.

It's our last Bastion of Freedom. We've lost all the others. Don't let this happen. Thank you.