

Internet videos desperately need captioning !!! Many deaf people rely on internet for their news (not tv) and we are missing out on breaking news stories and many important things that are readily available to hearing public.