

This is a terrible idea. It is easy to imagine what will happen if this is approved. Low-value, suburban AM rimshots will use FM translators as their primary marketing tool. The already-cluttered FM bands in medium cities will be further cluttered.

Tell the NAB no for a change!