

I am in full support of the NAB's petition to allow AM radio stations to license and/or use FM translators to retransmit their service as a fill-in service. This is especially useful for minority owners (current & potential) who often own AM stations and have trouble competing in the market place.

Jay Holloway

Holloway Media Group LLC