

Even with my number on the National No call list, I still lose money to people calling my cell phone running up the minutes when they do. I want to keep Indiana's state No Call list to prevent more people being able to call me, unless your willing to pay for my phone bill.