REQUEST FOR REVIEW OF DECISION
BY SCHOOLS AND LIBRARIES DIVISION
TO DENY FUNDING COMMITMENT
FOR FUNDING YEAR 2001-2002

On behalf of the all Consorcio de Escuelas Y Bibliotecas de Puerto Rico applicants (“Consorcio”) for Year 2001 E-Rate funding, Biblioteca Publica Aguada, Biblioteca Publica Yauco, Biblioteca Publica de Cayey, and Biblioteca Publica Villalba as former Consorcio members and pending applicants in the above-referenced matter,¹ hereby submit this appeal to the Federal Communications Commission (“FCC”) requesting review of the Schools and Libraries Division (“SLD”) second denial of desperately needed E-Rate funding to former Consorcio members whose applications are still unresolved.² The Consorcio was denied E-Rate service funding for the 2001 Funding Year for the second time in five years by the SLD pursuant to a Funding Commitment Decision Letter (“FCDL”) issued June 26, 2006,³ and notwithstanding the FCC’s

² See Appendix B for a list of all affected Applicants in this Appeal, including their names, relevant FRNs and BENs.

³ As the FCDL for all applicants is 330 pages long, it is not attached hereto. However, the Consorcio member signatories hereto will provide the Commission a copy immediately upon request. This is the recent direction to the SLD to properly and quickly process the applications. For the reasons set forth below, the Commission should reverse the SLD's further denial of funding.

For the purposes of this Appeal, the Applicant respectfully submits Appendix B, listing all affected applicants of the Consorcio. Their service provider is Hispanic Information and Telecommunications Network, Inc ("HITN").

Introduction

Applicants were members of the Consorcio, a consortium of schools and libraries in Puerto Rico, who filed their Form 471 applications electronically for Funding Year 2001. The Commonwealth of Puerto Rico is a Spanish speaking jurisdiction of the United States and is among the poorest jurisdictions in the nation. Until very recently, the SLD has made virtually no effort to make the E-Rate process accessible to Spanish-speaking participants. The SLD initially denied the Consorcio Forms 471, because the mailing of the Block 6 Certifications and/or the Item 21 attachments were postmarked shortly after the 2001-2001 filing window closed on January 18, 2001. Previously, these items were accepted by the SLD after the filing window closed, and the Consorcio members did not receive notice regarding the new procedural change. In their initial appeal filed five years ago, the Consorcio argued to the Commission that because the SLD failed to follow proper procedures for a significant rule change, second time the SLD has denied funding to the Consorcio applicants for Funding Year 2001, with the first funding denial having occurred over five years ago, which was originally subject of the current appeal proceeding.

and because a clear language barrier existed between the SLD and its Puerto Rican applicants, the appeal by the Consorcio should be granted.⁴

On May 19, 2006, the FCC directed the SLD to reconsider Form 471 applications filed by the Consorcio applicants that were filed outside of the filing window. The SLD recently did so, and has now denied the same entities on yet another improper ground. This time around, the SLD improperly alleged competitive bidding violations stemming from the Consorcio's clearly harmless and mistaken inclusion of an alternative contact person's name, Gloria Bermudez, their service provider liaison, as a technical contact person in the Form 470, Block 1. Given the language barrier between SLD and these Spanish speaking applicants and the Consorcio's lack of full understanding of the SLD rules quagmire and bureaucracy, the applicants gave a completely logical answer to the question at the time. In denying the applications on this new inconsequential ground, the SLD has produced not a shred of evidence that this harmless error has had any effect on the competitive bidding process for these applicants during the 2001 Funding Year. Nor has the SLD provided any details of any requisite investigation it is required to do before drawing conclusions based on pure conjecture and assumptions about the potential affect that a Spanish speaking applicant's voluntary use of a service provider's contact's name may have on the applicant's competitive bidding process.

The schools and libraries of Puerto Rico are among the poorest in the nation and many of the members of the Consorcio were located in rural, hard-to-serve areas. There was little serious interest in serving Consorcio members from anyone other than the applicant's service provider, HITN. In fact, during the year in question and every prior year, HITN was the only service provider to make any bid to provide any of the requested services. The competitive bidding concern was solely a creation of the SLD and did not arise from any complaint from a disappointed bidder, an applicant or any entity competing to provide E-Rate services.

This appeal applies to services that, for the most part, have already been provided by the applicants' service provider, HITN. Failure to provide payment to the applicants' service provider would result in severe hardship for the applicants and the service provider. The extended five year appeal process has already imposed a very heavy burden on entities affected by this appeal. The Consorcio itself has dissolved due to the financial strain and regulatory uncertainty of the E-Rate program, to the detriment of all potentially qualified E-Rate applicants in Puerto Rico.

The SLD improperly acted by denying these entities based on an error that was ministerial and harmless, in spite of clear and applicable instruction from the Commission to the SLD. The representatives of the former Consorcio request the FCC to direct the SLD to grant these applications their full funding commitment immediately without further administrative delay.

Argument

I. The use of a service provider staff member's name as a contact person was understandable error.

Given the language barrier and complete failure of the SLD to effectively communicate with Spanish speaking citizens of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Consorcio members made an understandable error in using its service providers' employee as a contact on the Form 470. Ms. Bermudez was the applicants' lifeline in dealing with the cumbersome and overwhelming E-Rate program. In the early years of the program, the SLD itself encouraged service providers to help potential applicants understand the new E-Rate program. The schools and libraries that were members of the Consorcio are some of the poorest and most deserving of the type of assistance the E-Rate program was designed to deliver. Most importantly, during the 2001-2002 funding year, there were few, if any, accommodations made to the Spanish-speaking applicants of the E-Rate program. Ms. Bermudez, as a bilingual speaker, was invaluable in helping each applicant navigate the E-Rate program. Since the applicants knew any communications from the SLD would be in English, the applicants put down on the form the only person they knew that could translate for them—Gloria Bermudez. At minimum, the Commission should in this circumstance waive any such competitive bidding rules as there was absolutely no harm to the competitive bidding process, and the public interest weighs heavily in favor of immediate grant of these applications.

In denying these applications again, the SLD now relies on a *2002 Order*⁵ that the Wireline Competition Bureau issued dealing with using a service provider's contact information on a Form 470, and unequivocally concluded there was a competitive bidding violation in this case. However, this was only a Bureau level decision, and the full Commission may rule differently based on the recent Bishop Perry Order.⁶ Even if the 2002 Order is determined to stand in the aftermath of the Bishop Perry Order and subsequent orders, it is profoundly unfair to have the 2002 decision retroactively deprive the Consorcio members and their service provider of all E-Rate funds for E-Rate services that were delivered, especially in light of the language barrier and that there is no evidence of any factual affect on the bidding process.

In the Bishop Perry Order, the FCC considered applications that were denied based on failure to comply with minimum processing standards. The FCC stated that, based on the facts of the specific cases cited, minimum processing standards will be waived, and the Commission knowingly went against the precedent established by the 2002 Order. The Bishop Perry Order gives some allowance for ministerial error, including mistakes in the contact information on Form 470's. The SLD has posted guidance in response to the Bishop Perry Order specifically stating that mistakes in the contact information were considered ministerial error, and will allow applicants to correct any mistakes they made in the contact information.⁷

The Bishop Perry Order was clear in the Commission's attitude that "such minor mistakes (do not) warrant the complete rejection of each of these applicants' E-rate applications, especially given the requirements of the program and the thousands of applications filed each year...Furthermore, we find that the denial of funding requests inflicts undue hardship on the applicants. In these cases, we find that the applicants have demonstrated that rigid compliance with the application procedures does not further the purposes of section 254(h) or serve the public interest."⁸

It is in the public interest to allow this ministerial error to be corrected or to be ignored, and funding issued for these schools and libraries without further delay.

II. The SLD is improperly inventing competitive bidding violations to summarily deny applications.

In the companion order issued on May 19, 2006, the Commission specifically directed the SLD to revisit applications that were denied for competitive bidding violations using a pattern analysis procedure to identify similar language in applications. The SLD assumed that since similar language was used in applications, competitive bidding violations had occurred. The FCC directed the SLD to go back and examine the applications, saying, "we find that when USAC suspects that a service provider has improperly participated in an applicant's bidding process due to the results of its “pattern analysis” procedure, it is incumbent on USAC to conduct further investigation and analysis prior to denying funding. Specifically, USAC should review these applications fully, and should not issue summary denials of requests for funding solely because applications contain similar language. If an entity is able to demonstrate that it fully complied with all program rules and did not, for example, violate the Commission’s competitive bidding rules, then USAC should not deny funding on the basis of the “pattern analysis” procedure.”⁹

The Commission has recently issued yet another order directing the SLD to reconsider denials based on alleged competitive bidding violations. In this August 2006 Order,¹⁰ the Commission examined 30 cases in which participants were denied funding based on the lack of price consideration in the competitive bidding process. The Commission directed the SLD to allow for other considerations in addition to the main consideration of price. This Order, in addition to the San Antonio Order, shows that the SLD must refrain from inventing alleged competitive bidding violations, and take into consideration the different circumstances of applicants. The SLD must be able to look at the whole situation, not just specific rules and fragments of the facts, and make decisions that reflect the public interest, not just whether or not a reviewer can check off a requirement in a box. In this case, the SLD may not simply claim that because it has been determined that a service provider's name was mistakenly placed in a voluntary contact person name block of a Form 470, that a competitive bidding violation occurred such that an application should be denied. There must be an actual finding that a competitive bidding violation has in fact occurred based on a careful review of all the circumstances. In this case, had the SLD presented evidence that, for example, a potential competitive bidder was dissuaded from pursuing a bid for the Consorcio services because that potential bidder was concerned about an HITN email address being associated with an applicant voluntary contact person listed on the form, that may be grounds for denial. The SLD cannot act on pure conjecture alone, and the Commission should immediately reverse this denial absent any such clear evidence.

Conclusion

The Commission specifically ordered the SLD to not use ministerial errors to exclude E-Rate funding. The Commission also recognized the significant language barrier that existed between the SLD and its Puerto Rican customers. In this case, the SLD has cavalierly reverted to its mechanical exclusion policies in disregard of the Commission's clear instructions. The Consorcio has demonstrated that the form error was unintentional and ministerial, not the product of malicious intent or purposeful disregard for the rules against waste, fraud, and abuse. Given the language difficulties, the applicants' answered the question in a logical fashion. There was no contemporaneous complaint from a disappointed bidder. In fact, there has always been little to no interest by prospective service providers other than HITN in serving some of the neediest schools and libraries in the nation in one of the highest cost areas as is Puerto Rico. The inclusion by the Consorcio of the HITN contact person in the voluntary contact information block was an unintentional and understandable error, and was the type of error the Commission instructed the SLD to forgive in its Bishop Perry Order. The FCC should instruct the SLD to disregard the ministerial error and immediately issue a positive funding commitment without any further delay.

Important Notice Regarding Correctable Errors on FCC Forms 470 and 471

In the recent Bishop Perry Order,¹ the FCC directed USAC “to provide all E-rate applicants with an opportunity to cure ministerial and clerical errors on their FCC Form 470 or FCC Form 471, and an additional opportunity to file the required certifications.”² The FCC further indicated that “applicants shall have 15 calendar days from the date of the receipt of notice in writing by USAC to amend or refile the FCC Form 470, FCC Form 471 or associated certifications.”³

USAC is publishing this list of correctable errors today. Errors are broken into the following categories:

- A. Errors on Forms 470 that were previously Minimum Process Standards rejections. These corrections must be made before the Form 470 can be posted, which starts the 28-day clock.
- B. Errors on Forms 470 that can be corrected by amending the Form 470. These corrections are made to forms that are already posted, and do not affect the 28-day clock.
- C. Errors on Forms 471 that were previously Minimum Process Standards rejections. These corrections must be made before the Form 471 can be data entered and reviewed.
- D. Errors on Form 471 that can be corrected by amending the Form 471. These corrections are made to forms that are already data entered.

Applicants who completed applications during the window, but who did not certify within the window, will be given 15 days to submit their certification. In order to take advantage of this, your application must be received by USAC during the window and the only thing that was missing was the certification.

Notification for FY2006

All Applicants who applied in FY 2006 (whether you have received your FCDL or not) should carefully review all of the corrections that can be made to their forms. Applicants have 15 days, starting on July 14, 2006 to provide USAC with any allowable corrections. Corrections are due on August 2, 2006.

Because the filing window for FY 2006 has already closed, and all Forms 470 had to be posted for at least 28 days before the close of the window, only some of the errors for the Form 470 can be corrected at this time. They are:

1. Form 470 Certification submission deadline
2. Form 470 Certification received by USAC but missing a signature
3. Form 470 Contact person name changes
4. Form 470 Item 17 – List of Billed Entities

All correctable errors listed for the Form 471 are correctable now.

Starting with FY 2007, applicants will be able to take full advantage of the complete list of correctable errors.

How to Correct an Error for FY 2006 Form

Applicants who wish to submit a correction should follow the instructions listed on page 4 of the RAL for making changes.

Allowable corrections received within 15 days of notification from USAC will be reflected in the Funding Commitment Decision Letter.

USAC List of Correctable Ministerial and Clerical Errors

In the recent Bishop Perry Order,⁴ the FCC directed USAC “to provide all E-rate applicants with an opportunity to cure ministerial and clerical errors on their FCC Form 470 or FCC Form 471, and an additional opportunity to file the required certifications.”⁵ After receiving notification from USAC, applicants will have 15 calendar days to correct these errors. (It should be noted that applicants always have the option of correcting any error on a form by resubmitting that form, as long as they can comply with the any necessary deadlines.)

The following list explains which items on the FCC Form 470 and FCC Form 471 can be corrected by applicants within 15 days of notification by USAC.

FCC Form 470

There are two categories of errors that can be corrected without refileing the Form 470. Correction to items listed in the first category, Minimum Processing Standards Errors, with the exception of the Certification Deadline and the Authorized Person Signature, must be received by USAC before the form can be posted, which starts your 28-day clock. Corrections to the second category, Errors that can be corrected by amending the Form 470, can be made after the Form 470 has been posted.

A. Minimum Processing Standards Errors

The following items previously listed in the FCC Form 470 Instructions as Minimum Processing Standards will no longer be cause for automatic rejection. However, USAC must receive the missing information within 15 days of notification from USAC before the FCC Form 470 can be posted. The 28-day clock starts once the form is posted. It should be noted that if you are going to take full advantage of the time to make corrections, that will require at least 43 days to process (15 days to correct plus 28 days for posting.) If you do not provide the information within 15 days, your form will be rejected for failing Minimum Process Standards and any FRN on a Form 471 will be denied. To avoid these errors, USAC encourages applicants to use the Apply Online system.

ERROR LOCATION	CORRECTIVE ACTION ALLOWED
FCC Form 470 – Funding Year Specific	Applicants who use the wrong version of the form from a prior funding year can make corrections to the correct version of the form within 15 days of notification from USAC. This item is required before the form can be posted which starts the 28-day posting requirement.

⁴ Request for Review of the Decision of the Universal Service Administrator by Bishop Perry Middle School, New Orleans, LA, CC Docket No. 02-6, Order, FCC 06-54 (2006) (Bishop Perry Order).

ERROR LOCATION	CORRECTIVE ACTION ALLOWED
FCC Form 470 Block 1 Items 1 and 3 Applicant Name and Contact Information	As long as there is sufficient contact information on the form to be able to make contact with someone, applicants can provide the missing contact information within 15 days of notification from USAC. This information is required before the form can be posted which starts the 28-day posting requirement.
FCC Form 470 Block 2 Items 8, 9, 10, and 11 Summary Description of Needs or Services Requested (Telecommunications Services, Internet Access, Internal Connections Other than Basic Maintenance, and Basic Maintenance of Internal Connections)	Applicants who did not enter any information in any of these items can correct this error by providing the missing information within 15 days of notification from USAC. This information is required before the form can be posted which starts the 28-day posting requirement. Applicants who seek to correct information already posted for these items or who want to add a category of service that was not entered when the form was posted will not be allowed to make those corrections. Paper filers can correct these items before their form is posted, and online filers can file a new Form 470 as long as there is still time in the filing window.
FCC Form 470 certification submission deadline	For applications completed within the filing window, applicants can file the certifications within 15 days of notification from USAC.
