

for the previous month I have been trying to access my acct. online to Verizon wireless, due some bills, (still outstanding) found out it was next to impossible to get this info, bad customer service at local stores, unwilling to help not even to provide a simple print out of my acct. (itemized calls) to be able to see if this bill indeed it was valid, be carefull if you happen to be in a similar case.