We urge you to have pricing systems in which consumers pay for only the channels they want!

Please allow consumers to purchase individual shows within a cable channel. Why should I be forced to subsidize programming I don't agree with or watch?

Dear Chairman Martin, I am with you.....I WANT a-la carte channel selection. In a package of about 50 channels, I may look at 15, 20 at the most...all the rest is shopping and junk to me and a waste of my money. I am almost 60 years old and concerned about costs and value for the money I'm spending.

I went to Dish satellite so I could get 3 religious channels at a good rate. Before that I had been with Adelphia Cable company but they did not have religious programming on the "regular" cable. I would have had to upgrade to digital JUST to get the religious channels. Lots of junk I don't want came with that upgrade - and cost - so I went to satellite. The sad thing about satellite is when the weather is bad, you have no TV and that is when TV is needed - when weather is bad.

I want to choose what's right for me. Thank you for speaking for me.
