

It is a protection of individual rights to allow the public to choose programming, government regulations are against everything that made this country great. We have the right and responsibility to make our own choices. Treat us with the respect an American deserves - give us the freedom of choice.