

Please do not allow government control of our media. There are many competitive outlets available for me to watch and listen to. Free enterprise must be allowed to expand.

While I agree the FCC needs to have a role in establishing a code of conduct to police abusers of porn, smut, foul language etc. there can not and should not be government control.

Thank you

Bill Walters