

Don't tamper with our freedom to select what we believe is appropriate on our TV set. More government control will not improve our options, and will only open the way to more taxation and bureaucratic mandates on what the FCC believes to be appropriate. Stick to what you are supposed to be doing - keeping pornographic and violent material off the air.