

I think it is time you quit your job and closed the FCC since you don't control the content and that is the only thing that needs to be done now. If you want I can send you an application from my employer and you can begin your process of getting off the govt teat.