

The vast majority of American people are opposed to any expanded control of the nations media by government (federal, state or local). I trust the FCC will not prescribe further encroachment by the Federal government on the mass media of the country.

Thank you.