

It is time for the FCC to get out of trying to regulate the media, especially the internet!!! If I don't like something, I just turn it off. Don't listen to the left-wingers who want to get rid of anything they don't want and can't control. INCREASE competition and choice by removing regulations that censor what we can do and let the marketplace take care of it.