

I oppose this petition. There are many times when one amateur station wants to identify another amateur station. Today you can request their call sign and should get it within 10 minutes. Increasing this time may require waiting much longer to get a needed call-sign. Ten minutes does not represent a burden for the amateur operator.