

The petition cites situations where existing rules are being ignored. Surely the solution to that is to enforce those rules, not to introduce new rules that would also be ignored. I believe we should keep the existing rules, requiring only the sender's ID, every 10 minutes or at the end of a conversation.

-- Bill Noyce, amateur call AB1AV