

Dear FCC - I am asking that you require that communications towers use flashing lights. This will prevent the needless deaths of millions of birds.