

The lack of competition to the cable company in NJ creates a monopoly; thereby, they can charge whatever they want, and you have no choice but to pay, their attitude when you call and complain, is the response "get the dish." I live in a condo and cannot do that.