

I support the position of the Alliance for Community Media and Montgomery Community Television with respect to 05-311. The FCC is overstepping its authority here and should leave these matters to Congressional legislation. PEG services need to be protected, and local communities should be allowed freedom to establish and negotiate all franchise fees and conditions.