

All new providers must contribute to public access. They should not be allowed to profit in our public land without considering local needs. They must be required to negotiate in good faith when working with the city and not be given an exemption on this issue.

Changes to the law should be made by Congress and NOT the FCC. The proposed new FCC rule reduces support for public access services already allowed by current Federal law.