

Contracts can be issued based on current provisions provided in contracts with cable companies already operating in a given City.

That alone speeds up the process but still keeps the basic control locally with the people we elect to do this particular job.