

we need competition in the cable world, because of the monopolies our bills go up and up with no reason given. there are times your service can be out for hours with no explanation and no refunds, but don't be late with your bill, your service is off immediately with just a push of the button.