

Please do not quash any more reports that show what's really going on in America.

The public owns the airwaves, not a handful of corporations.