Pursuant to the Commission's rules, this letter provides Notice in the subject proceeding, of meetings that occurred on February 5 and 6, 2007 between Ken Arneson, vice president and Reuven Carlyle, public policy advisor, representing S5Wireless, Inc., and Michelle Carey, Legal Advisor to Chairman Martin.

In a separate meeting with the leadership of the Public Safety and Homeland Security Bureau, Deputy Director Dana Shaffer, along with Carol Simpson, Dan Grosh and Dave Siehl. And, on Feb. 6, in a separate meeting with Barry Ohlson, legal advisor to Commissioner Adelstein.

The company outlined its view of the definition of "technically and operationally feasible" with respect to nationwide autonomous location for E911, and asked the Commission for regulatory clarity about the Further Notice of Proposed Rulemaking. It provided a copy of the attached position paper. The company took no position on the other outstanding issues for the VoIP E911 Report and Order.
