

We as a nation, have a tremendous responsibility to do whatever it takes to save as many birds as possible. If that means altering or lighting the towers, we must proceed as soon as possible to remedy the situation which is causing the senseless death of millions of birds! Cheyenne Scarpelli