

I support the National Association of the deaf and other consumer organizations proposal to require all relay service providers provide 10 digit phone numbers to videophone users