

I think is wrong for the government to cut the fund for close caption when there was law pass in 1996 stating that all show must be close caption. It is unfair for deaf and hard of hearing people can't watch a show because is not close caption. If The goverment can spend billion of dollars in Iraq They can afford to pay for close caption.