

Comment to the ex-parte revision to RM-11306.

I am strongly against this proposal that would allow for automatic unattended digital operation in areas outside of the current sub bands. The possibility of harmful interference and bad feelings it could cause would far outweigh any potential benefits.