

The merger between Sirius & XM should be allowed, there is no reason to oppose it. Let us also remember that when FM first started on the scene, the NAB was against that format because they stated that there was no reason for it, and it would only hurt the consumer.