

I am in opposition to the FCC eliminating the morse code requirement for the Amateur Radio Extra Class license.

For the applicants who successfully passed the Extra Class license since the new rules applied on February 23rd, they should be able to retain the Extra Class license.