

This petition seeks to make Morse Code a "core competency" above all other modes of communication in the amateur spectrum. The recent jump in the number of amateurs both newly licensed and upgrading is evidence that the Morse requirement was restricting the growth of the amateur service. In our state, emergency communications with the state EOC is moving more towards digital communications and less to voice or code. I would urge the Commission to deny this petition.