

The merger of these two competitors would be detrimental to the consumer by removing free market competition. If this merger happens consumer choice will not be an option. Market pricing would be dictated by one massive and anti-competitive company.

The market must remain flexible enough to allow entry of new competitors and this will not be the case if this merger occurs. Thank you