

The Universal Service Fund (USF) needs to be protected and expanded. This little amount of money provides so many benefits to our communities and society in general. It helps promote growth in our economy and also helps to provide services when needed and not needed.