

Keep the internet freely accessible

The internet is the town square of our times, a place to meet and share information. We don't need traffic cops profiteering in our town square. Keep this public resource free and open.