Dear Ms. Dortch:

I am opposed to the FCC considering placing a cap on the use of the Universal Service Fund (USF) for wireless service. There are people and communities in rural areas that do not have access, others that are trying to expand their wireless communications and others that are trying to convert to wireless systems. The lack of infrastructure and funding are a huge handicap and a danger in these areas in the event of natural disasters or other needs for emergency services. Caps on the Universal Service Fund are an unacceptable handicap for those areas of the country that NEED and want such service.

Sincerely,

Richard DiMatteo
