

For years, I've utilized the tty, now using Relay.

However, this is far from the best convenience because of the inability to see and/or hear the person, to whom I am speaking.

I am attempting to get the Sorenson man back over here as I now have high speed internet access and feel that a Video Phone would be a huge improvement.