Net Neutrality is essential to free speech, equal opportunity and economic innovation in America. Since the FCC removed this basic protection in 2005, the top executives of phone and cable companies have stated their intention to become the Internet's gatekeepers and to discriminate against Web sites that don't pay their added tolls.

I barely make it as it is, and this sort of thing would put me under. It's completely unnecessary, and is only a way for buig media to make more money and control our lives even more.
