

a window to the world closing for everyone so the way i see it is we can keep the few freedoms we have left or we can give into big business why should i give up anything to let them control what or how i see something they have no right to control speeds and stop them all together i am just a 20 year old kid but i would like to have the world at my finger tips when i log on not the world as big business see it fit for me to see it
