

Don't Get Your Tubes Tied

Internet Tubes, that is, tied up by politico-corporate gatekeepers who stifle innovation and competition in Internet markets.

The FCC must ensure that the upcoming auction sets aside at least 30 MHz of spectrum for open and non-discriminatory Internet access. This will guarantee that new entrants have the opportunity to enter the market in competition with incumbent providers.

This new wireless spectrum must be open and neutral so that America can build a better Internet for everyone.
