

The need to reserve part of the open spectrum auction for open and non-discriminatory Internet access is of exceptional importance to me.

I work in the field of community media specifically in public access TV. However, we know that the media landscape is evolving and the electronic greenspace of public access TV must find a new home. This home is formly situated in the 30 MHz of spectrum for open and non-discriminatory Internet Access.