

FCC, here is your opportunity to guarantee affordable Internet by saying NO to monopolies and big business companies controlling access. Do not give away the spectrum to cable and phone companies. Ensure at least 30 MHz for open access.

Build a strong democracy by providing access to information. The internet is a great tool for education and sharing ideas. Everyone should have ability to participate, not just the wealthy, not just the corporate advertisers.

.