

We must protect as much of the mediums for media distribution for the public domain as possible. This includes the newly open airwaves which are attempting to be controlled by the large telecom companies. Please reserve these airwaves for the public domain, for it is in America's best interest. We could use these airwaves for an open, neutral and accessible internet. Please Please Please listen to the people on this one.