

Please set aside atleast 30 MHz for open Internet Access. Consider the success of the National Park System and what it means as a public domain for the free discouse of ideas and communication;for the public (we the people) and not private purpose. The government must protect our airwaves from the same corporate gatekeepers so that we can keep up with the rest of the world.

Michael Smith