

The Emergency Alert System is a great system and should offer or give info. as much as possible to assist citizens of the United States Of America. It is very helpful to fisherman and outdoor persons. American workers who have a outdoor job and companies that do alot of outdoor work would most likely find this system very helpful. The Emergency Alert System should be given attention and protection.